

Independent Research Policy

All investment research issued by Hiddensee Research Ltd (“Hiddensee”) is independent, impartial and objective. We do not publish non-independent research as defined in FCA COBS 12.2. Hiddensee does not conduct any investment business with or for its clients, other than the provision of investment research. Hiddensee staff have no other responsibilities which could conflict with the interests of our clients. Hiddensee does not carry out any execution of client orders and has no corporate advisory or finance business; it has no involvement in raising capital for corporate clients. Hiddensee has no other regulated or unregulated business activities which conflict with its provision of independent research.

Interests in Securities

Hiddensee, its directors, employees, affiliates or consultants may have interests in the securities on which we provide research and may add to or dispose of such securities from time to time. Any such interests are reviewed by the Compliance Officer at Hiddensee to ensure that they do not represent conflicts of interest with our customers.

Conduct of our Investment Analysts

All of Hiddensee’s investment analysts including those contracted are supervised by directors of the firm. In the event of any conflict of interest, Hiddensee requires all relevant employees to disregard any material interest or conflict of interest when writing research.

Our analysts are not permitted to be involved in any activities which could be seen as conflicting with our provision of investment research to our clients. No inducements offered by issuers, or others with a material interest in the subject matter of investment research, may be accepted by our investment analysts if the research is to be published by Hiddensee. No employee of Hiddensee may carry out any personal account dealing which could create a conflict of interest which might affect the impartiality of Hiddensee’s investment research. Any personal account dealing by employees is subject to review by the Compliance Officer and no dealing which could create a conflict of interest between the employees of Hiddensee and its customers is permitted. In addition, a prohibited list of securities is maintained. All outside business activities of employees are subject to review by the Compliance Officer.

Our Research

The timing and manner of publication and distribution of investment research and of the communication of its substance must be approved in advance by a director or senior analyst of Hiddensee. Before being issued, all research documents must be approved and signed-off by a director or senior analyst. No one outside Hiddensee may comment on draft investment research before publication, other than, where necessary, to verify factual information. Certain disclaimers may be included in our research where appropriate, for example for legal reasons. Hiddensee’s policy and procedures require investment research to be distributed in an appropriate manner. Our investment research is published and distributed either in hard copy or online. No employee may communicate the substance of any investment research, except in accordance with our policy of independence.

January 2020